

Amazing Grace Hymn

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.*

*Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.*

*The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be,
As long as life endures.*

*Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.*

*The world shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun refuse to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Shall be forever mine.*

*When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.*

In Loving Memory

Obituary

Claude Lee Grant was born the first of three children to Maria and Willie S. Grant on November 28, 1942. He attended school in Malden Missouri and worked part time with his father on automobiles. Later he took up the trade of upholstery and then joined the Charleston Missouri Police Department. Claude loved playing music. In his younger years he was a Drummer for Rhythm and Blues bands in Missouri. He also served as a Foster Parent. Eventually Claude moved to the Sacramento area.

In Sacramento, he spent his time as a Security Guard, caretaker, and made several friends in the area. Claude had a heart of gold, a wonderful sense of humor, a big smile for anyone he met, and he never met a stranger. He loved fixing things, helping people and going fishing.

Claude passed on December 27, 2012 and left us all a little richer for knowing him. He is survived by his Sister, Willie Bell Grant, his Children, Corky F. Henderson, Claude V. Grant, Claude E. Grant, Kim J. Grant, and Hope D. Grant. He leaves behind several Grandchildren and Great Children.

Family Chain

We little knew that morning, God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.
